

Red Cedar Undergraduate Research and Creative Arts Journal
AUTHOR ASSURANCES AND AGREEMENT

I recognize that the Red Cedar Undergraduate Research and Creative Arts Journal (ReCUR) publishes only academically sound, original works that do not infringe on the rights of others. In order to have ReCUR consider my manuscript (Work) for publication:

1. I affirm that (a) all factual information and data presented in the Work is true and accurate, (b) the Work is my original work except to the extent other material used is acknowledged and cited in accordance with academic principles, and (c) I have obtained any necessary permissions to include materials of others in the Work.

2. I grant Michigan State University the non-exclusive right to publish and reproduce all or a part of the Work and to create derivative works based on the Work for academic and non-commercial purposes.

I understand that ReCUR does not publish all manuscripts it considers for publication and that the Work may or may not be published by ReCUR. Further, I understand that I will, together with any other authors of the Work, retain the copyright to the Work, and the Work may, after publication by ReCUR, be submitted to another journal for publication in part or in whole. I understand that some journals will not publish works unless they have exclusive rights and that I am solely responsible for determining whether publication in ReCUR will interfere with future publication possibilities.

If the Mentor Representations and Agreement below is not signed, the author(s) also affirm that they have conducted any research for the Work and completed the Work without the aid or funding of a mentor, supervisor or principal investigator.
